14.2 The Supplier shall, upon the request of the Purchaser, provide the Purchaser with a copy of the foregoing policies of insurance, along with any amendments and revisions of the same.

15. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

15.1 If a dispute arises out of or in connection with the Agreement (including non-contractual disputes) the Parties will, following a written request from one Party to the other, attempt in good faith to resolve the dispute:

- 15.4 Nothing in this Clause 15 shall prevent either Party from seeking from any court of competent jurisdiction an interim order restraining the other from doing any act, or compelling the other to do any act.
- 15.5 With the exception of any rights of the Purchaser to withhold payment of the Price where it has bona fide grounds for doing so, the obligations of the Parties shall not cease, or be suspended or delayed by the reference of any dispute to dispute resolution in accordance with this Clause 15.

16. NOTICES

- 16.1 Any notice or other communication to be given by one Party to the other under the Agreement shall be in writing in the English language and shall be sent by pre-paid first class post or recorded delivery to (in the case of the Supplier) the relevant address as shown in the Purchase Order or (in the case of the Purchaser) to the University department or University Subsidiary placing the Order, copied to the University's Purchasing Office (or to such other address as may from time to time be notified to the other Party in writing as the address for service of notices and communications under the Agreement). Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the third Business Day from and including the date of posting.

17. PUBLICITY

- 18.1 These Conditions constitute the entire agreement between the Parties in relation to its subject matter, and supersede all previous drafts, agreements, arrangements and understandings between the Parties, whether oral or written.
- 18.2 Each Party agrees that in entering into the Agreement it does not rely on any statement, representation, warranty or understanding other than those expressly set out in these Conditions.

18.3 Nothing in this Clause 18 shall operate to: (a) exclude any provision implied into the Agreement by law and which may not be excluded by law; or (b) limit or exclude any liability, right or remedy to a greater extent than is permitted by law.

19. VARIATION

19.1 No variation to these Conditions shall be effective unless it is in writing in the English language and signed by the Parties' authorised representatives.

19.2 The Supplier shall not unreasonably withhold or delay agreement to any variation to these Conditions required by the Purchaser, or the implementation of the same; nor shall the Supplier impose unreasonable conditions (having regard to the other terms of these Conditions) in implementing a variation. Any revision of the Price to be paid under these Conditions as a result of such a request shall (to the extent possible) be calculated using the same or an equivalent method to that which was used to calculate the Price at the Commencement Date.

20. WAIVER

20.1 No failure or delay by a Party to exercise any right or remedy provided under these Conditions or by law shall constitute a waiver of that or any other right or remedy, nor shall it preclude or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

20.2 No single or partial waiver of any right or remedy provided under these Conditions or by law shall preclude or restrict the further exercise of that or any other right or remedy.

21. SEVERABILITY

21.1 If any court of competent authority finds that any provision of these Conditions is invalid, illegal or unenforceable, that provision shall, to the extent required, be deemed to be deleted, and the validity and enforceability of the other provisions of these Conditions shall not be affected.

21.2 If any invalid, illegal or unenforceable provision of these Conditions would be valid, legal and enforceable if some part of it were modified or amended, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to amend such provision such that, as amended, it is valid, legal and enforceable, and, to the greatest extent possible, achieves the Parties' original commercial intention.

22. NO PARTNERSHIP OR AGENCY

22.1 Nothing in these Conditions is intended to, or shall be deemed to, establish any partnership or joint venture between the Parties, constitute either Party the agent of the other Party, nor authorise either Party to make or (unless expressly provided otherwise in these Conditions) enter into any commitments for or on behalf of the other Party.

23. THIRD PARTIES

- 23.1 No person except a Party has any right to prevent the amendment of these Conditions or termination of the Agreement; and no person except a Party may enforce any benefit conferred by these Conditions, unless these Conditions expressly provide otherwise.

24. ASSIGNMENT AND SUBCONTRACTING

- 24.1 The Agreement is personal to the Parties and no Party shall assign, transfer, mortgage, charge, declare a trust of, or deal in any other manner with any of its rights and obligations under the Agreement or these Conditions without the prior written consent of the other Party, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.
- 24.2 The Supplier confirms that it is acting on its own behalf and not for the benefit of any other person.

25. ANTI-FACILITATION OF TAX EVASION

- 25.1 The Supplier shall:

25.1.1 not engage in any activity, practice or conduct which would constitute either:

(a) a UK tax evasion facilitation offence under section 45(1) of the Criminal Finances Act 2017; or

(b) a foreign tax evasion facilitation offence under section 46(1) of the Criminal Finances Act 2017;

25.1.3 have and shall maintain in place throughout the term of this Contract such policies and procedures as are both reasonable to prevent the facilitation of tax evasion by another person (including without limitation employees of the Supplier) and to ensure compliance with Clause 25.1.1;

25.1.4 promptly report to the Purchaser any request or demand from a third party to facilitate the evasion of tax within the meaning of Part 3 of the Criminal Finances Act 2017, in connection with the performance of this Contract; and

25.1.5 the Supplier shall provide such supporting evidence of compliance as the Purchaser may reasonably request.

- 25.2 The Supplier shall ensure that any person associated with the Supplier who is performing services in connection with this Contract does so only on the basis of a written contract which imposes on and secures from such person terms equivalent to those imposed on the Supplier in Clause 25.1 (Relevant Terms). The Supplier shall be responsible for the observance and performance by such persons of the Relevant Terms, and shall be directly liable to the Purchaser for any breach by such persons of any of the Relevant Terms.

- 25.3 Breach of this Clause 25 shall be deemed a material breach of this Contract, irrespective of the level of financial loss, deprivation of benefit or exposure to liability to which such breach would or potentially would give rise.

- 25.4 For the purposes of this Clause 25, the meaning of reasonable prevention procedure shall be determined in accordance with any guidance issued under section 47 of the Criminal

Finances Act 2017 and a person associated with the Supplier includes but is not limited to any employee, agent or subcontractor of the Supplier.

26. FORCE MAJEURE

26.1 In this Clause 26, "Event of Force Majeure" means an event beyond the control of the Purchaser and the Supplier, which prevents a Party from complying with any of its obligations under this Contract, including but not limited to:

26.2 Neither the Purchaser nor the Supplier shall be considered in breach of this Contract to the extent that performance of their respective obligations (excluding payment obligations) is prevented by an Event of Force Majeure that arises after the Effective Date.

26.3 The Party (the "Affected Party") prevented from carrying out its obligations hereunder shall give notice to the other Party of an Event of Force Majeure upon it being foreseen by, or becoming known to, the Affected Party.

26.4 If, and to the extent that the Supplier is prevented from executing the Services by the Event of Force Majeure, while the Supplier is so prevented the Supplier shall be relieved of its obligations to provide the Services but shall endeavour to continue to perform its obligations under the Contract so far as reasonably practicable (and in accordance with Good Operating Practices), provided that if and to the extent that the Supplier incurs additional Cost in so doing, the Supplier shall be entitled to the amount of such Cost (the Supplier having taken reasonable steps to mitigate the Cost).

26.5 If, and to the extent that the Supplier suffers a delay during any Construction Period as a result of the Event of Force Majeure then it shall be entitled to an extension agreed in writing with the Purchaser for the Time for Completion.

26.6 Irrespective of any extension of time, if an Event of Force Majeure occurs and its effect continues for a period of 180 days, either the Purchaser or the Supplier may give to the other a notice of termination.

9. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

9.1 Nothing in these Conditions shall affect the ownership of any Background Intellectual Property.

9.2 Where the Supplier's Background Intellectual Property forms part of any Deliverables supplied to the Purchaser in the course of providing the Services, the Supplier grants to the Purchaser a non-exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable and royalty-free licence (with the right to grant sub-licences) to use such Background Intellectual Property as part of such Deliverables and for such purposes as are necessary to allow the use and exploitation of the Deliverables by the Purchaser, its licensees, successors and assigns.
