

Student social worker on placement at the Centre

“As students working under the supervision of experienced and qualified social workers, we aim to provide a high standard of support to bring positive change for communities, families and individuals.”